

THE PEARL-DRILLER

Words by CLIVE JAMES : music by PETE ATKIN

The musical score is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is accompanied by chords written above the staff. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words underlined. The score consists of ten lines of music, each with a corresponding line of lyrics. The chords used are G, F#5, Em, A, B7, C, E7, Eb, and D7. The lyrics are: "If you find me gone one day And the sad songs left half-done It won't be al- one that I've gone a- way But a long way that I've run I'll be gone gone with the girl in the gold silk jacket The girl with the pearl-driller's hands If I fly the coop some time And take no- thing but a grip with the".
