

THE FLOWERS AND THE WINE

Words by CLIVE JAMES : music by PETE ATKIN

an- other night I've been to visit you and him Comes to an end Switch on the hallway light Fare-well a friend An- other night I bring the flowers and the wine has ticked a- way

There were only three to dine and two to stay When you fix the dates for tete-a-tetes I these What tells you that I count the days be-

E_b

-tween ex-cept my noth-ing-car- ing air of

C

ease? When clouds black out the moon that moves the

A_b F B_b B_b7

tide What tells you there's a river in the

E_b

dark ex-cept the street-lights on the other.

C G A F F7

side? An- other night I book a

G9 A7 Dm

taxi door-to- door Has been and gone

G G9

I have never loved you more See you an-

C

-on